

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

RS18431

The purpose of this legislation is to establish a college of law scholarship fund for third year law students attending the University of Idaho. The fund shall be used to pay the state tuition for third year college of law students and, if the fund is of sufficient size, may be used for living expenses. This legislation will help lessen the financial burden on third year law students and help keep families together.

FISCAL NOTE

There is no fiscal impact. This legislation establishes the fund and relies on future appropriations, donations, contributions, gift and grants.
